Guidelines for exhibitors

These guidelines are based on 'Winning Ways', the CWA's book that standardises judging at agricultural shows. There are hints for exhibitors, what the judges look for and how they allocate points. Please enquire if further information required. The Show Society have also included their own guidelines.

Section F. Vegetables and Fruit. All produce must be grown by the exhibitor. Rhubarb leaves and beetroot tops should be trimmed to about 5cm. Onions should be tied together, tops trimmed to about 5cm, and the outer skin intact.

Section G. Preserves. Bottles/Jars should be clean and well polished. Jars should be sterilized self-sealing or use cellophane covers. If unable to source cellophane covers can use oven bags – cut a round circle. Tomato and other sauce bottles should have removable tops.

Entries should be labelled with type and ingredients. Classes 3-10 should be filled to the top with no more than 5mm headspace. Classes 12-18 should be filled within 10mm of top of wide mouthed jar. Marmalade – fruit to be sliced thinly and tender. All entries except Class 1-2 should be labelled. Egg judging, one egg may be broken into a saucer for judging.

Fermented Section – Items to be labelled; both bottles and jars should be clear glass and have removable tops.

Section J. Floral Art and Cut Flowers. Flowers and items for floral art can be from any source. Cut flowers must be grown by the exhibitor.

Section K. Homemade Products. Exhibits must be made by the exhibitor. It is not necessary that cooking should be 24 hours old but should be cold when delivered to the Hall. All cookery exhibits must be presented on plain white paper/plastic plates (the society does not provide plates); paper doily's are allowed. Paper lining should be removed. Biscuits should be uniform in size. Scones should be about 5cm in diameter and do not dust scones with flour.

Ensure exhibit is as stated in schedule. If there is no mention of icing on slice, etc then can be iced or not iced. Please note melted chocolate is not classed as icing. Plum puddings should be removed from cloth and basin. Note fruit cakes and puddings will be cut but will be wrapped in cling film afterwards. No decoration unless stated in schedule. Ensure no cooling rack marks are showing on product. Use high grade and fresh ingredients; flour can deteriorate over time.

FEATURE CLASS 2026 – Two items from Section G, Classes 3-19 (except 7), two items from Section K, Classes 1-17 (same quantity as in schedule). Place on tray or similar.

Novice Section -- exhibitor who has not won a first prize at the C.H. Show Section K, Classes 1-32 and with no more than 2 years participation in Novice Section.

Section L. Needlework and Sewing, Woolwork and Handicraft. Exhibits must be the work of the exhibitor. No exhibit that has won a 1st prize at the Circular Head Show to be shown. Articles to be pressed with a damp cloth but washed articles will be disqualified.

Knitting. Tension should be firm but elastic. Patterns should match at the seams. Hand knitted articles must have hand knitted bands. No machine knitted bands permitted. Flat seams should be used for baby wear, and for joining cuffs and bands. All parts of the garment to be in correct proportions. For any non-stated sized garments, attach a note stating reason for irregularity.

Crochet. Firm even tension so that design holds its shape. Use suitable thread ply for design and purpose. Firm strong, inconspicuous joins. Use flat seams for joining.

Handicraft – No knots, loose ends or loops, backs neat and tidy.

Section N. Photography. The exhibitor is limited to 3 photographs in each class. All exhibits must have exhibitor's name, address and schedule class number clearly displayed on the back of the mounting card. All classes are open to either colour or black and white prints, unless otherwise stated. Photos not to exceed A4 size, excluding mounting board. All photographs must be securely stuck to a firm mounting board or card to assist in displaying. No frames are permitted.

No livestock exhibit to be removed before the conclusion of the grand parade, Exhibition Hall, 4 pm.
9. Any prize not collected on show day will be forfeited to the society.
10. The Committee will afford every possible facility to exhibitors, and every care will be taken of exhibits, but no responsibility will be incurred by the Society.
11. The Society reserves itself the right of refusal of any entry and of substituting a special prize, providing such special prize or trophy shall be of equal value to the prize offered; also to alter, delete or postpone or combine any section or class or part of it.
12. Any dispute as to the interpretation of the rules, bylaws or provisions shall be determined by the Executive Committee, whose decision shall be final.
13. The Society shall not in any circumstances be responsible for any loss or mis-delivery of stock or exhibits.
14. The Society will not be responsible for any accident that may be caused through or by an exhibit.
15. Should any dispute arise for which no specific rule is laid down, it may be referred to the Executive Committee, whose decision shall be final.
16. Any exhibitor or other person making any annoying remark to any judge, steward or another competitor during the time of judging or competing will be ordered by the stewards to leave the vicinity, and failing to do so, may be removed from the grounds or building, and any exhibit he or she is interested in may be disqualified.
17. No persons, except stewards and those in charge of exhibits will be permitted to remain in any section of Showground or building during judging of said section under any pretext whatsoever. Persons in charge must on no account leave their exhibits unless authorised by the stewards.
18. Exhibitors affixing their names or any distinguishing mark on their exhibits shall be disqualified. This does not refer to ordinary brands on stock.
19. The same exhibit cannot compete in two distinct classes except where otherwise specified. Exhibits entered in any class may compete for special prizes, unless otherwise provided conditionally upon entry fees for such special prizes being paid.
20. The judges have the power to withhold or reduce any prize if in their opinion the exhibit is not of the required standard or does not conform to the requirements of the classes as described in the schedule.
21. No protest will be entertained unless it is in writing and lodged with the Secretary within one hour of the judgement in dispute and accompanied by a $25 fee which will be forfeited should the complaint be thought to be frivolous by the Executive Committee.

Rules and Regulations

22. Should any exhibit, having gained a prize, be disqualified the next on the list does not necessarily obtain the same prize. The Executive Committee, with or without the advice of the judges, shall decide the question.
23. No second prize will be paid unless three (3) or more entries are received in that class regardless of whether Section is sponsored, unless the individual class and prize is sponsored.
24. Exhibits may only be removed at the discretion of the Chief Steward.
